

Honoring You

Doula Support for all of Life's Journeys

Meet Agine Williams

Hello! My name is Agine and I looove what I do!

For the past 30 years, it has been an honor and joy for Agine to care for little ones, adults and seniors from birth through the end of life. Agine has worked as a CNA, HHA and Certified Postpartum Doula in a variety of capacities and is happy to be with Honoring You providing non-medical care as a doula across the lifespan.

“Caring for babies and children has always been close to my heart. I know it takes a special kind of patience, and I’m grateful that it’s one of my gifts. As a postpartum doula, I love being there for families and new moms—whether it’s soothing their newborn, helping them feel comfortable after giving birth, or simply reminding them that they are remarkable and cared for. I have experience with preemies, multiples, and babies with special needs I’m passionate about keeping newborns safe, healthy, and feeling deeply loved.”

Agine worked as a pediatric home health aide and provides postpartum care and childhood support through Honoring You. She also provides respite care and end-of-life hospice support and feels blessed to be able to step in when life throws you a curveball. She has supported families through illness and bereavement and can provide respite care for parents of children with disabilities too. This is something she has been called to do.

Agine truly enjoys being around family and friends, bringing joy to others, and making people feel welcome. “In my free time, you’ll often find me at the beach, crocheting, or creating thoughtful care packages to brighten someone’s day.”

“And, as a mother of two now-grown children, I remember exactly what I wished for—a doula with patience, skill, and a heart that truly cares and that is exactly what I bring to every family I work with!”

Testimonials

"We feel incredibly blessed to have found Agine to care for our daughter, who has special needs. From the very first day, she showed an extraordinary level of patience, understanding, and compassion. She didn't just look after our daughter's physical needs—she took the time to connect with her, to listen, and to bring out her smile. Every interaction was filled with kindness and respect, and she made our daughter feel safe, valued, and loved. Her dedication, reliability, and genuine heart gave our family such peace of mind, and we will always be grateful for the positive difference she made in our daughter's life and in ours."

" Agine first cared for our newborn son as our nighttime postpartum doula, giving us the amazing gift of being able to actually sleep while knowing he was safe and cared for. She was gentle, calm, and so loving with him, and she gave us tips and reassurance that really helped us. When she later became our son's nanny, she continued to give him the same love, patience, and attention. Over the past three years, she has helped him grow, learn, and feel happy and secure. She's truly become part of our family, and we're so thankful for everything she's done for us."

"We were blessed to have Agine care for our mother. She is gentle, patient, and truly loving in everything she does. She treated my mom with dignity and kindness, as if she were her own family. Her presence brought us peace of mind, knowing my mother was in the very best hands. She not only met her needs with skill and professionalism, but also filled our home with warmth, compassion, and comfort during a time when it was needed most."
